For 52 years, Resist has supported thousands of groups working on the frontlines for gender equality, racial justice, LGBTQ freedom, immigrants’ rights, economic and environmental justice.

As a grassroots foundation, Resist does not have an endowment, which means we raise money from over 8,000 donors each year.

Hell Yeah! grantees are fully funded and exemplify the radical, intersectional, and necessary work happening on the ground.

ABOUT RESIST

WELCOMING 22 NEW RESISTERS

- Current Movements
- Cincinnati African American Black Interpreter Collaborative
- Ishtar Collective
- Beyond These Walls
- Struggle for Miami’s Affordable and Sustainable Housing (SMASH)
- The Collective
- Surveillance Technology Oversight Project (S.T.O.P.)
- Feed Black Futures
- Indigenous Peoples Power Project
- People’s Collective for Justice and Liberation
- Coalition for Restaurant Safety and Health (CRSH)
- Troy 4 Black Lives
- Floridians for Alternatives to the Death Penalty
- Native American House Alliance Inc.
- Worcester Youth Cooperatives
- ICE Out of East Tennessee
- Re-Entry Mediation Institute of Louisiana
- Disabled Rights Action Committee
- Majdal Community Center
- Philando Castile Peace Garden, a Project of the Saint Paul & Minnesota Foundation
- Center for People’s Self Determination
- The United Covenant Union

www.resist.org

Follow Us! @calltoresist