Black Liberation Giving Guide

WWW.RESIST.ORG
OUR MISSION
Resist is a foundation that supports people’s movements for justice and liberation. We redistribute resources back to frontline communities at the forefront of change while amplifying their stories of building a better world.

OUR WORK
Resist has supported thousands of groups working on the frontlines for gender equality, racial justice, LGBTQ freedom, immigrants’ rights, economic and environmental justice. Movements for social change have transformed since Resist’s founding, and Resist continues to transform with them. Today, we fund progressive organizations that are resisting, re-imagining, healing, and transforming towards the world we want to see.

THIS GIVING GUIDE
We at Resist know that the movement doesn’t just need resources, it needs you. Our hope is that your relationship with Resist is a transformative one that allows you to connect with the grassroots activism happening in your state or region.

On Black History/Futures Month (and beyond), use this Black Liberation Giving Guide as a means to connect with and directly support the groups on the ground who are marching us, hand in hand, towards a new world for us all.

Grantee Black Excellence Collective (New York)
Co-founder: Joshua Allen
Below you’ll find a directory of Black-led grantees. These groups are an example of the radical, intersectional, necessary work happening on the ground across the country and they deserve your direct support all year round. Click on the grantees' names or pictures to learn more about their work. Some grantees receive donations through fiscal sponsors in which case you can note their name in the description.

[Please note: the demographics collected for this guide are based on the organizations' most recent applications.]

"nobody's free until everybody's free"

- FANNIE LOU HAMER
We will never have the money that those in power have, but Resist believes in a simple equation: a little bit of support plus grassroots creativity and passion can equal radical social change.
